Morgan Freeman Asks Me About the Messiah

By Yoram Hazony, February 21, 2016

In October, I spent two days in the Old City of Jerusalem with Morgan Freeman shooting for his new documentary film The Story of God. This is a 6-part series that is scheduled to air on the National Geographic channel beginning March 27. Nat Geo has just released the following beautiful trailer for the series, which includes a brief exchange between me and Freeman on a sensitive topic. You can read a little more about the series here. I'm looking forward to seeing more of the conversation when it airs in a few weeks.
